The controllable events to be considered for retrospective examination request comprise the following:

1. Uncontrollable events that occur with the students, such as sickness or accidents that require hospital treatment. As such, the students must submit evidence or accompanying documents from the "hospital" only.
2. Uncontrollable events that are caused by external factors and have effects on the students including emergencies occurring with the parents, natural disasters, or epidemic diseases that prevent the students from taking the examination. As such, the students must submit evidence or accompanying documents for consideration.

PIM Student Practice

PIM provides teaching and learning model as Work-based Education. All PIM students will experience learning on the real-work practice. Practicing in an internship company is an important course of programs; and aimed at both students' efficiently practicing and real-work skill development. Therefore, students should behave appropriately while practicing during their internship periods.

• Examples of Partner companies

• Practice Instructions

1. Attend the training on the date and time determined by the company.
2. Strictly follow the rules of the company.
3. Respect, obey and follow the trainers' instructions.
4. Punctuality, diligence, patience and job caring are required.
5. Perform the assigned duties with care and comply with the security rules of the company.
6. Honesty, generosity, and sacrifice to others are required.
7. Dress and behave appropriately.
8. DO NOT disclose any information of the company without permission.
9. Express your gratitude to trainers at the end of the internship.

Student Care
and Assistance

In order to help students while studying, the institute has allocated individuals or agencies to take care of and help them through the following channels
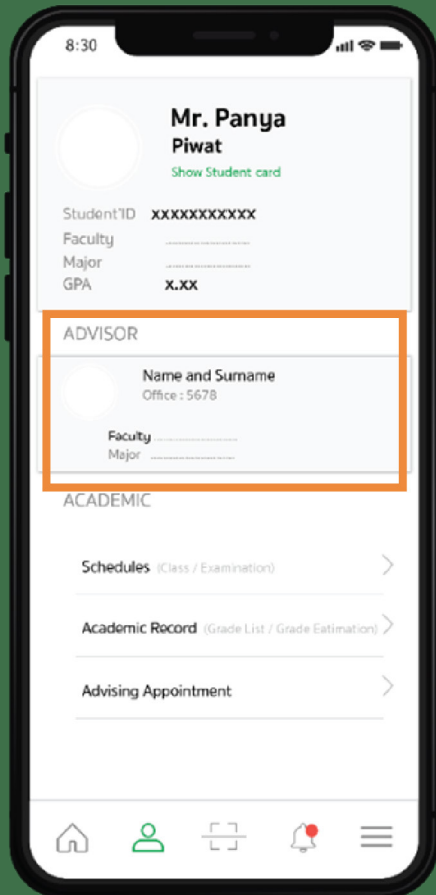

• Advisors

Provide counseling and guidance for students. Students can check the list of advisors via the PIM Application

Students can find instructors' availability for consultation by clicking on the "Search Instructor Time" button on the left menu bar. Students should then contact the reception desk in front of the lecturer offices (FL. 9 - 12) in order to meet the advisor according to the pre-booked time in the Registrar System website.

Scholarships

At Panyapiwat Institute of Management, there is a policy to promote and support educational opportunities for students in accordance with the terms and conditions of their scholarship regulations.

The scholarship types for the academic year 2020 are as follows.

1. PIM scholarship: allocated to students of all faculties and disciplines
2. Training Scholarship for Working Preparation: educational funds given by CP ALL Public Company Limited
3. External Scholarships: educational funds from the generous, educational organizations and both external and domestic companies.
4. The Government Loan
   is the Student Loan Fund for Education (Ko.Yo.So) which is divided into 2 types. Type 1 is the loan fund for students who lack funds for their study; and Type 2 is the loan fund for students studying in the programs that respond to the main needs of the country.

Students are required to maintain a high level of academic performance and good behavior throughout their studies in order to keep the opportunity of scholarship earning continuously.

For new students applying for the Government Loans especially on early period of course enrollment of both the Pre-semester and the 1st semester of academic year 2021, all stipend and tuition fee must be prepaid by the student while waiting for the loan approval and the contract signing process.

For more information about the scholarship, please contact the Scholarship Department,

Student Discipline

The Institute has determined regulations concerning student discipline in order to serve as guidelines for supervising students to be orderly. In the cases that students do not follow the rules and regulations of the Institute, such as inappropriately dressing, showing inappropriate behaviors and other wrong doings, they will be punished with disciplinary action. There are many dimensions of disciplinary punishment as follows :

1. Giving verbal or written admonishment to them
2. Reducing their behavior scores
3. Having them perform services that benefit the Institute or society as determined by the Institut
4. Delaying the announcement of the examination results or issuing any certifying letter or document showing the academic results of the Institute
5. Revoking the right to take the examination or delaying the nomination or the approval for receiving a diploma or certificate
6. Suspension of study
7. Dismissal from the Institute

If the student's scores have been reduced, what will happen?

Reduction of 40 - 60 points :
suspension of study for one semester

Reduction of 61 - 80 points :
suspension of study for two semesters

Reduction of 81- 99 points :
suspension of study for three semesters

Reduction of 100 points :
dismissal from the Institute.

Volunteer activities of 4 hours :
recompense the score of 5 points

Volunteer activities of 4 hours :

Obtaining Grade A
from three courses :
recompense the score of 10 points.

For students whose behavior scores have been reduced, if they participate in activities for self-development or for social benefits such as CSR voluntary-minded activities of the Institute, or have high level learning achievement, they can make a request for restoring their behavior scores as well. They can check the current status of their behavior scores as follows:

1) Visiting the website http://reg.pim.ac.th and login to the system
2) Clicking the "Conduct" button at the left side of the menu. The system will show the current status of the student's behavior score.

How to Avoid Being Retired

The risk of termination or being retired is caused by several factors. Therefore, students should avoid the behaviors that lead themselves to those risks, which are the following: Having GPAX of lower than 1.50 except for the first year students in the first semester.

1. Having GPAX of lower than 1.75 for two consecutive semesters.

2. Having studied in the program for the duration that is twice as long as the required duration of the program but still cannot graduate.

3. Lacking qualifications for further study in the program.

4. Failing to register and failing to take leave of absence for the semester.

5. Using fake evidence to apply for admission.

6. Being sentenced to imprisonment by the final judgment of imprisonment excepting in an offense committed by carelessness or in minor offenses.

7. Being ordered by the Institute to be dismissed due to serious disciplinary offenses.

Both students who have been retired due to "failing to register and failing to take leave of absence for the semester" and/or "being ordered by the Institute to be dismissed due to serious disciplinary offenses" may request to be re-admitted. As such, the matter must be in accordance with the Institute's announcement.
